

‘Boekstart’ wants both the parents and their little children to enjoy books. Children who get acquainted with books from an early age improve their linguistic skills, they are faster readers, they are better in doing sums and they very often own a membership of a library. Looking in a book together strengthens the bond between adult and child and will generate lifelong memories of warm moments and safety.

Boekstart.be iedereenleest.